

AN OVERNIGHT ENTRY

Wife—Any fashions in that paper, Jack?

Jack (who has just settled a dress-maker's bill)—Yes, but they are no use to you, dear. It's yesterday's paper!—London Opinion.

DON'T RETRIEVE

Ted (at summer hotel) — Those pretty waitresses look awfully fetching.

Ned — After you've been here a while you'll find they fetch nothing. —Judge.

THE EXCEPTION

"Do you subscribe to the old theory that the criminal always returns to the scene of the crime?"

"Not always," replied the sure-enough detective. "Sometimes the extradition papers won't hold."

GETTING READY

"I see you have supper a little later every night, my dear."

"Yes; I'm working up gradually so as to get cook ready for those twelve-inning games."—Pittsburgh Post.

AND THAT TOO

A clergyman catechizing a Sunday school, when comparing himself—the pastor of the church—to a shepherd and his congregation to the sheep, put the following question to the children:

"What does the shepherd do for the sheep?"

A small boy in the front row piped out:

"Shears 'em!"

SOME LANDLORD!

Tenant—Our house is in very bad shape. One of the walls has bulged out several inches.

Landlord—Is that so? Then as the house is larger I'll have to raise the rent.

TEMPERAMENTAL

"Your daughter's very fond of music, isn't she?"

"Yes, indeed. It's no trouble for her to practice on the piano when I need some one to help me with the dishes."—Detroit Free Press.

THE REMEDY

Impatient Father—You are always whining for spending money. I notice Eddie Binks always shuts up when his father tells him to.

Discontented Son—Of course, he does. His father always gives him a dime!
